A joint checking account, with the signatures of husband and wife both registered and recognized, is quite the thing these days. It is certainly a decidedly convenient thing.

Why Union Ave. Is Not Open Through

With the one exception of 61st to 63rd st., this street is open at 75th st. to 83rd st., although the small space under the track elevation is not paved as yet. It is a street of good width all the way, and would be the natural driving street to the Stock yards and an entrance into the southtown district. Halsted st. is so congested at many hours of the day, that many avoid it, when possible. If Union ave. was opened through, it would relieve much of the through traffic, from Auburn, Gresham, Beverly Hills Morgan Park and the south. If Halsted st. was relieved of this traffic, hundreds of prospective buyers could reach the big stores on Halsted st., and do their buying, while, as it is, they avoid it, and thousands of dollars worth of trade rightfully belonging to our merchants is driven elsewhere. Yet we find that the real opposition to the opening of Union ave. is a little coterie of merchants, who are so shortsighted, that they think we would lose trade by having it opened. We have letters on our desk now, saying that if Halsted st. merchants, especially those between 61st and 66th sts. want patronage, they should provide some room to park cars of customers while shopping.

If Union ave. were opened as a regular thoroughfare, it would be the means of doing away with "that dark spot" between Wallace st. and Union ave., and add hundreds of feet to our business district, besides connecting central Englewood's business district with that of Halsted st. and west. Wake up, you business men, and get your clubs after this important work. It would be the most important improvement made in the Englewood district in a generation.

Mothers' Day Next Sunday

This one day in this busy old world we may pause to give time to the best sentiment within us in honor of that best of all human beings, "Our Mother." If she is within our ability to visit her, we should do so, and if not, we should write her or send some slight token of remembrance. We can never overcome our reverence to "Mother," and it must be a small soul that will not yield affectionate remembrance to her on this day.

Special services suitable to the occasion will be held in all churches and many organizations take cognizance of the day, and let us all turn back the pages, no matter how they may be written, to our childhood days and to our best friend then and now, "Our Mother."

Reasonable Priced Apartments Needed

While hundreds of apartment buildings are being erected, they are mostly of the extremely high priced kind, that rent from $100 per month to three times that amount. While there is need for these in some quarters, the greatest need is for more moderate prices, renting from $35 to $75. It will be found that the average wage earner cannot afford to pay more than this price, and is often forced into undesirable neighborhoods, or old style unsanitary buildings. Even though the cost of material and labor is very much higher than in past years, it seems if the high priced finishings were omitted, and some of the unnecessary luxuries left out, such buildings could be made to rent for much lower rents than are demanded now. It occurs to us that some capitalist with a soul could supply this need, and at the same time reap a fine income on his investment. Don't all speak at once, gentlemen; line form to the right, and begin building.

Miss Emily Wagner, 65th st. and Union ave., spent her vacation the past week in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mormon, 6501 Yale ave., moved May 1st, to 6550 Yale ave.

Miss Margaret Conley, 259 65th st., spent the week in Madison, Wis., returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Holmes, 335 64th st., spent last week visiting friends in Sandwich and Ottawa.

Mr. James I. Bath and family, 6805 Union ave., have moved to 6549 Harvard ave.

Miss Jane McDonald, 432 Marquette rd., has returned from her vacation of one week at French Lick, Ind.

Englewood Presbyterian vs. Auburn Park M. E., will play at Hamilton Park, Saturday, at 2 o'clock, May 12th, diamond No. 2.

G. S. Hutton and family, 7002 Eggleston ave., motored to Champaign, where they spent a few days visiting relatives.

Mrs. O. F. Isensee, 64th st., and Mrs. Ervie Ravenbyrn society editor of the Herald and Examiner, are guests this week of their many friends in Milwaukee.

Mrs. E. B. Anderson and sons, Stewart and Robert, 6621 Harvard ave., have returned from Daytona, Fla., where they spent the past month at the winter home of Mrs. Anderson's sister, Mrs. Harris.

Looks as if Mayor Dever Was Keeping His Promises

While it is a bit early to make a clean sweep claim, we are still of the opinion that Mayor Dever meant what he said when he promised reforms for Chicago in the event of his election. His official family thus far appointed is decidedly non-partisan, and he is selecting the best men for the positions and heads of departments, irrespective of their political affiliations. He has given us a chief of police that we are proud of, and Chief Collins is rooting out the vice dens with an enthusiasm that paralyzes the overlords of the crime sections. The "do-nothing-but-draw-pay" city hall employes are being deprived of their sinecures, and the workers who are retained are instructed they must do a full day's work for their pay; and the loose and corrupt methods of the lax administration of the past eight years are being swept away. All of this the new administration is doing without any loud acclaim or sounding of horns, but in a quiet bueinesslike way that is most commendable. There was a grand field for reform, and thus far Mayor Dever is working it. More power to him, and may he allow us to "point with pride" instead of apologizing for the affairs of our wonderful city.

Overloaded Trucks Cause Waste and Dirt

The practice of overloading trucks with coal, sand, lime or loose material of any kind has become a nuisance. The purchaser is defrauded out of his full weight or measurement, and the surplus that is jogged off to the driveways and paving makes them dirty and uncouth in the extreme. Besides the heavy weighted vehicles ruin the paving, be it asphaltum or brick, and soon ruts and holes are made that mean the finish of a good job in a year or less. There is supposed to be a city ordinance regulating this matter, but it's enforcement is unheard of—why not?

Hear Judge Rutherford
in his heart-cheering message which has thrilled and cheered great audiences in Europe and America. On two occasions Royal Albert Hall, London, the greatest auditorium on earth, was packed and many thousands were turned away. New York's great Hippodrome was quickly filled to hear Judge Rutherford, and 10,000 were turned away.

THE NEW WORLD BEGINNING
"MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE"
Judge Rutherford wants this statement to be understood as literally true, that millions now living will never die but will be restored to perfect condition of body and mind and live on the earth forever in peace and happiness by obedience to the new order under the Messiah.

Englewood Not Well Represented

With the exception of County Commissioner Dan Ryan and Judge Harry Lewis, Englewood has no representation in the county offices. John Bain is on the board of South Park commissioners, but in city affairs we are absolutely without representation other than by our aldermen. This is not fair to the half million people residing in the south end of the city. We should be represented on the library board, on the board of education and in every important division of the city government. Especially is this true of the board of education, in which our part of the city plays so important a part. It would be well for our representatives in our many civic organizations to place our needs before the proper authorities, and urge our rights on the more important boards.

Mass Meeting and Reception to Women of Ireland

A group meeting of the Thomas Davis, Robert Emmet and Major John McBride Councils, A. A. R. I. A., all located in Englewood, will be held on Monday evening, May 14th, in Visitation auditorium, 54th pl. and Peoria st., at 8 o'clock, in honor of Miss Linda Kearns, I. R. A. Field nurse, and Miss Kathleen Boland, sister of the late martyr, Harry Boland. The meeting will be in charge of Francis B. O'Gallagher, president of Thomas Davis council; Dennis Cusick, president of Robert Emmet council, M. F. Nugent, president of Major John McBride council, and Honorable Joseph A. Graber acting as chairman. All liberty lovers, regardless of race or creed, are asked to be present to hear the story of Ireland's struggle for independence from the lips of these two women who have been with the Republican army since Easter week, 1916. All that the sympathizers of the Irish republic ask is that we, here in America, suspend judgment on their actions, until we glance backward and take a bird's-eye view of the modes and methods of our own immortal George Washington, it was not by throwing gum drops or honeyed words at the enemy that he established this grand and glorious republic, but with the aid of a Boston Tea party and numerous other mild protestations.

Ireland today is the only white people in slavery. Come and help her to shake off her shackles and banish the "Gentleman the King," forever from her shores. Everybody welcome. Admission free.

Pianist Recital at Thoburn Church

Modern Laundry Extending

Proprietor Chas. W. It is immediately north of the present building and will have a fifty foot frontage on Halsted st., running 120 feet back in the lot. The increasing business of the Modern makes the new building a necessity, and Mr. Brown is to be congratulated upon the efficiency of his organization and the excellence of his work, which compels this addition.

This Week at the Empress

STYLE SHOW AS WELL AS FRANK O'NEIL AT EMPRESS

A new addition of particular importance and interest to the company playing "A Million Dollar Doll" at the Empress theater this week is Mr. Thompson, who appears as "Willie Wise." Mr. Thompson gives a performance of unusual merit and is a valuable addition to the cast.

The male quartet, consisting of Bob McIntyre, Bert Barry, Bob Girard and Mr Thompson, is rendering some specialty music that gives added value to the already attractive show.

It is fortunate that members of the "Challenge Chorus" are numbered. If they were not, the audience would become bewildered by the bevy. As it is, hilarity reigns at the Empress during their performances and not one of the twenty-four pretty girls in the array is left out in audience calls for specialty performances.

The funniest man on earth will join the Empress company next Sunday, after weeks of negotiations. Manager Whitehead proudly announces that Frank O'Neil will teach Englewood to laugh as it has never laughed before, for he is undoubtedly the cleverest comedian yet to appear before an Englewood audience. He is a clean cut, eccentric chap, who has a beautiful voice. He is a talented musician and his every move is laughable. He is coming on at a tremendous salary, but Mr. Whitehead promises that he will outdo the famous Bozo.

In conjunction with the regular show, the merchants of Englewood are opening their spring season with a fashion show and the intermission will be devoted to the display of beautiful creations and importations of gowns. Millinery, lingerie and other feminine attire will be shown on beautiful, living models. The merchants have gone to a world of pains and expense to make this style show impressive and it should be a great feature for the ladies.

The Fashion of 1923 Company will number forty-five clever persons and Mr. Whitehead promises the best show of the year, full of fun, beauty and refinement.

Week of Big Shows at Harvard Theatre

The coming week, beginning today, is one of extraordinary attractions at the popular Harvard theatre. Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, matinee and night, May 11th and 12th, Manager Coston offers "Hearts Aflame," announced as one of the biggest spectacular photoplays of recent years. It is Reginald Barker's latest production, released by Metro, and it adds considerably to the fame of this director of big pictures. One thing in particular has attracted widespread attention in connection with this picture, and that is a vivid and exciting forest fire, which is said to surpass anything of the kind ever before presented in motion pictures. In order to reproduce it for screen purposes a tract of timber was ignited and twenty cameras photographed it from many angles. It is through this raging blaze that Anna Q. Nilsson runs a locomotive, and in staging this realistic episode the celebrated screen actress was painfully burned. Her injuries kept her confined in a hospital for several weeks. Also the new two part Christie comedy, "Holt Tight," Pathe Review and, Saturday matinee only, "The Jungle Goddess."

On Sunday and Monday, May 13th and 14th, continuous from 2 to 11:30, the most lovable star of the screen, Jackie Coogan (the million dollar kid) in his new big production, "Daddy." Jackie Coogan is authority for the statement that "Daddy" is his best picture. Perhaps his testimony is prejudiced, because most of the time spent in making the picture kept little Jackie on a big farm several miles from Los Angeles. And what a time he had! All is not work for a motion picture star, particularly for little Jackie, whose parents see to it that he has ample time for boyish fun and pranks. Jackie hadn't been on the ranch an hour before he was the sworn ally of all the pets, from the great watch-dog to Mildred, the tiniest pig on the place. "Daddy" is a First National picture. Also round four of Witmer's "Fighting Blood."

On Tuesday, May 15th, comes Jack Holt in his wonderful dramatic story of India, "The Tiger's Claw India —land of magic, mystery and bazaars. That's the setting for this absorbing tale of stormy passion, dark intrigue and rousing super-thrills. With Jack Holt as a reckless lover, who weds a bewitching tiger-girl—and falls into a hot-bed of stirring adventure. The white girl he left behind him—and the jungle girl who saved his life—both fought for him But in startlingly different ways. Also International News, a good two act comedy and Prisma colortype pictures.

On Wednesday and Thursday, May 16th and 17th, matinee and night, a great extra special for these two days only. The screen's most marvelous spectacle, Douglas Fairbanks in his two million dollar production, "Robin Hood." No character in history or legend ever appealed more to the imagination for his preponderance of dashing romantic verve than Robin Hood whose exploits in the Twelfth Century serve to mark that era as one in which the spirit of chivalry reached its zenith. No character in the memory of mankind ever was given such a magnificent opportunity to be impressed permanently so brilliantly.

Doings of Englewood Post No. 61

As per announcement in last week's Times, the meeting of Englewood Post, held last Friday evening, was open to anyone that cared to attend. It is the purpose of the entertainment committee to acquaint the people of the community just what and who the members of this post are. These social affairs (for that is what they really are) will be given at short intervals, and will be worth while attending.

The post feels itself greatly indebted to the Englewood Woman's club for the splendid assistance rendered in making this first affair a success. Among the artists that gave their time and effort to the success of this affair were Miss Marcella McWilliams; Mrs. Mundt, Mrs. Mumford, and Mrs. Wilhelmina Smith. Ex-Senator Frank P. Sadler gave a short address on good citizenship.

After the program the Ladies' Auxiliary served refreshments. It is the plan of this committee to hold open house the first Friday of every month in the future, and a feature program of a very high character will be given at these meetings. Watch for the next regular announcement in this paper.

The regular business meeting of Englewood post will be held at the G. A. R. hall on Friday, May 18th, at 8 p. m. sharp. Important business will be brought before the meeting, and a tentative program for the post activities for the coming year. Every member is urged to attend. Any ex-service man wishing to join Englewood post may present themselves at this meeting, but they must present their discharges.

Beginning Saturday evening, May 12th, a series of dances will be held at the main floor auditorium of the Englewood Business College building on Englewood ave., just east of Halsted st.

Hamilton Park Branch Library

VACATION LOAN

The Hamilton Park branch of the Chicago Public library now offers to its patrons the privileges of a vacation loan by which one may take ten books any time from now on and retain them until Oct. 1st. No matter where one's vacation is spent, whether it is quiet and restful, or gay and exciting, there is always some time that a book seems really needed. The camper may make use of the outdoor books, the traveler may read interesting accounts of places he expects to visit, the tennis and golf players may perfect their games by a study of the books on these subjects, and all may be entertained by a general collection of fiction, poetry, drama, or any other subjects they may care to select. The only conditions are that no "seven day" nor books in constant demand may be chosen, and that all books be drawn out at one time. Children must have the written consent of one of their parents. The librarians will be glad to suggest titles for vacation reading, and as a beginning offer the following group of ten titles of varied interests:

LeGallienne, Book of English Verse; Stewart, Perfect Behavior; Russell, Problem of China; Jeffers, The Call of the Mountains; Oliver, First Steps in the Enjoyment of Pictures; Barrie, Admirable Crichton; Doubleday, Nature's Garden; Marshall, Watermeads; Hannay, Spanish Gold; Tarkington, Conquest of Canaan.

Special recognition of "Mothers' Day" will be given at the services at Normal Park Baptist church next Sunday, May 13. At the morning service the ushering will be in charge of a young women's class, and all mothers present will be especially honored. The evening service will be one in which consideration will be taken of parental responsibility for the nurture of religious life in the home: particularly the mother's responsibility. "My Mother" will be the topic of the sermon by the pastor at the morning service, and "Religion in the Home" the evening topic. The large chorus choir, under Mr. George Gordon's direction, and soloists, will render an appropriate musical service.

Returned from California

Kelso R. Glover, pastor of the Stone church, 70th and Stewart, has lately returned from a six week's trip to California. He went on a combination vacation and preaching tour, speaking in San Diego, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Oakland and Modesto. The California spring blossoms, flowers, green grass and sunshine were real tonic and sent the pastor back renewed in mind and body.

We, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, hold that our Republic constitutes a valuable possession, not only for Americans, but for the world. It secures liberty for our own people and brings hope to all the world. Any attempt to undermine our government or to weaken its authority at home or its prestige abroad must be sharply repressed.

We know that certain men, who do not believe in the principles of our republic, have taken advantage of American hospitality to organize a large number of associations with the avowed purpose of destroying our government, using force, if necessary, and of placing the country under the domination of some such self-appointed despotic group of Bolshevist as has brought anarchy and misery upon Russia. To stop these enemies of the American republic, we solemnly declare and take oath that we hold ourselves ready to answer any call to defend our country against any attempt to change our government by usurpation or by force.

We seek for this pledge the widest publicity and urge all American citizens, men and women, of all creeds, races and occupations, who believe as we do, to join with us in this pledge.

We agree to do our utmost to give to those who come here from other lands a clearer and nobler sense of American citizenship: to make plain to them the value of the great privilege of American citizenship within their reach.

Bonus blanks can be still obtained at Musser-Lorenz store, 6250 Halsted st., where Mr. Meisler will render free clerk-notary service. Bonus checks are to be paid July 1st or sooner. The V. F. W. worked indeed hard to make the vote of the people stick at Springfield. Hey, buddies of the army, navy, marine corps! join this organization. Reason—so widows and orphans of veterans may receive proper legislation.

Next meeting of Greater Chicago Post No. 866 will be May 15th, Tuesday evening, G. A. R. hall. A bunco party will be held same hall May 22nd; good prizes and numerous. Public invited.

Increased wages draws more people, which increases the labor market, thus drawing more factories.

Chicago has an ideal location, both from the standpoint of raw materials, labor market and convenience to markets for finished product.

Because of its size Chicago is no mean outlet for its own products; in fact, a great many firms thrive on purely local business.

Because of its commanding location Chicago seems destined always to hold its commanding position as gateway of the East and West.

Partake of Chicago's growth by investing in Chicago's land.

Time will prove the value of this advice.

Be sure to choose your investment wisely; use as much care, at least, as you do in purchasing a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes.

OPENING DAY, SATURDAY, MAY 12th

LEITNER & MILLER'S
Quality Meat Market
6519 South Halsted Street

Saturday, May 12, 1923

Dear Madam:

This letter is of utmost importance to you because it is pertaining to the health and happiness of yourself and yours.

We are opening a QUALITY MEAT MARKET at 6519 S. Halsted St., where meats of the better kind may be had at a reasonable price.

We all know that our health depends a great deal on what we eat and we are sure that inferior meats do not help keep children or grown-ups healthy. That is why we are taking this means of inviting you to our Market, where we know you will find Fresh and Smoked Meats of all kinds and at all times that we know will more than please you. Please remember that a tough piece of steak or a few tough chops do not put a family in a very happy frame of mind. We are here to help you keep fit as well as happy at your dinner table by supplying you with meat that you can eat.

Yours for Better Meat,

"Books of the Hour" Now Available at Kelly Branch

Are you up-to-date in your dress? In this day of fashion and jazz, you will find it satisfactory to be up-to-date in your reading too. There is a vogue now being established in the literary world, in keeping pace with our modern authors and their works. One hears repeatedly the question: Have you read "Black Oxen" or "The Cathedral?" Are you ready to converse on it? If not, why not? Your local library is glad to loan you these popular books, and acquaint you with the latest word in fiction and its writers.

Chicago, your own city is now recognized as a great literary center, and some of our writers are recognized in Europe. Some of their works are now being translated into foreign languages. Books are our best friends, but they are expensive luxuries. There are some books that we should own in our own home, but a lot of the late books will have just a passing interest. Many of them are nothing, but pot boilers. Here is where the Hiram Kelly branch, with its invaluable wealth, and carefully selected list of titles, will gladly furnish you with the "Books of the hour." Take a moment and look it over.

Atherton, "Black Oxen." Countess Zattiany rebelling at fifty-eight, against reproaching old age, undergoes a rejuvenation treatment, and becomes in body and brain a woman of twenty-eight, retaining with the romantic interests of her new youth the disillusioned mind of her former self. A thirty-four year old New York columnist falls in love with her, and this gives place to a very interesting psychological study of the woman. The action of the story is among the literary and social circles of present day New York.

O'Brien, Howard Vincent, "Trodden Gold," one of Chicago's newest contributors. This is a lively story of two sisters and their families and their belief that money and social position bring happiness and the strong conviction that it comes through constructive work and unselfish living.

Montross, Lynn. "Town and Gown." These are sketches of "real life," at Illinois University, depicting characters familiar in all colleges, such as the dry-as-dust. professor, the youth, who doesn't make a frat, the fusser, the football hero, etc. They are written with greater skill than the usual college stories and more sophisticated in tone.

Hugh Walpole, "The Cathedral." Story centers around the Dolchester cathedral, splendid and massive, becomes a god demanding his own rites and worshippers. Against the background of its magnificence is fought the duel for supremacy between simple minded, autocratic archdeacon Brandon, symbolizing the arrogance of the church, and Canon Ronder, used by destiny as a blind impersonal force to break the old order to make way for the new.

Forming a Community Band

Monday evening thirty-four young men from this part of the city met at the Englewood Business college auditorium at the call of Dr. W. R. Hepburn, Charles Pasal and William C. Miller to organize a community band. An organization was effected and another meeting will be held at the same place next Monday evening. The object of the promoters is to reach the boys who are over 16 and have outgrown the Boy Scout training age, and give them an object to keep together and do good work for themselves as well as the community. The boys are enthusiastic and are doing a good work. Every boy living in the southtown district is invited to join and participate in the many advantages that will be offered them, including a band training that will be useful to them.

"Hi-Y" Clubs to Dine

On Thursday evening, May 17th, the Hi-Y clubs from Parker, Englewood, Lindblom and Calumet high schools will hold a joint dinner at the "Y" headquarters in Thornton hall, 501 W. 69th st. This will be the first of a series of monthly dinners at which the clubs will get together for joint meetings.

The different clubs from each school are competing for the largest percentage of attendance. Individual prizes will be awarded the winning club. The Junior Hi-Y clubs from Parker, Lindblom and Calumet have been competing for several months on special Hi-Y tests, and the club which has scored the highest number of points will be awarded a banner. The rivalry between the four schools will undoubtedly find expression in the songs and yells. It will be a lively dinner.

Stanley Pickford, president of the Parker Hi-Y clubs, will act as toastmaster. The committee in charge of the dinner is: James Hartle and Alfred Tredwell, Parker Hi-Y's; Norman Klopp and Robert Bird, Lindblom Hi-Y's, Sidney Anderson and George Pettie, Calumet Hi-Y's, and Willard Whitmer, Englewood Hi-Y.

A Great Treat

For the benefit of Oakhaven Old People's Home, a concert, the greatest treat of the season, will be given at the People's Liberal church, corner 65th st. and Stewart ave., on Tuesday, May 22, at 8 p. m. Jessie Royce Landis, accomplished reader, is on the program with that favorite, "Smilin' Through;" Ben. Schroeder, baritone soloist of unusual ability, will give groups of songs, and Henry Souvaine, pianist and composer of New York City, will give several numbers. The new Ampico reproducing piano, furnished by Lyon & Healy, will also be used on this occasion.

Seldom has talent so varied and of such high order and interest been offered in one entertainment. The proceeds of this concert are to help the Mary and Martha club furnish a room in the home. Please remember, May 22nd.

Kiwanians Entertained by Blind Musicians

The luncheon of the Englewood Kiwanis club Tuesday was made more than ordinarily enjoyable by the music furnished by an orchestra composed of blind men, consisting of James Adair, Reuben Horstman, Isaac Minsky and John Kirsch. Their selections were well rendered and patriotic enough for the occasion, the closing number being rendered in honor of the centenary of the author of "Home, Sweet Home," and the club joined in singing this wonderful melody.

The attendance prize was awarded Charles Pasal, and "Doc" Bishop will have the pleasure of furnishing next week's award. Tom Whitehead and J. M. Monahan were added to the committee to attend all Kiwanian functions for the next month.

The result of the attendance contest, which closed with this meeting, was that Englewood had an average of 98 5-10 percentage, the highest in the blue class, but Woodlawn had the highest in the city and in their class. In the international, Englewood stood fourteenth, a very good standing, as several of the outside clubs maintained their 100 per cent.

Our own Dr. R. D. Hughes made a very happy address, brief and appreciative, and the members gave him hearty welcome.

An Evening Chat

EVERY evening after 8:30 long distance telephone rates (for "station-to-station" calls) are about 50 per cent lower. At midnight a still further reduction becomes effective, and until 4:30 A.M. night calls are completed at about one-fourth the day "station-to-station" rates. The minimum reduced evening and night rate is 25 cents.

This service makes it possible to call distant friends or relatives, or call your home if you are out of town, at a very small cost.

Just call the number and say that you will talk to any one who answers.

"Station-to-station" long distance calls meet almost every requirement. Consult the telephone directory for further details or call "Long Distance."

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

"A gath'ring band,
A clasp of hand,
A smile and a word of cheer
A slap on back,
A joke's sharp crack,
A song that is good to hear
An earnest prayer,
Relief from care,
A service without a fee,
A deed well done,
A Friendship won,
Kiwanis is that to me."

No quicker way to make a fool mad than to call him one.

In the matrimonial library, there is no more popular book than the check book.

The man who keeps out of trouble may miss some excitement, but he will sleep better at nights.

Some people are willing to profess religion if it looks like a good business proposition.

A man who has actually made good, does not have to blow his own horn.

Many a profit is without honor.

If a man has sense he enjoys a little nonsense occasionally.

I would like to see a salesman good enough to sell former senator Newberry a Ford machine.

After you have hit a man with impunity, it is safer to follow it up with a brick, if he is a bigger man than you.

The shoe store clerk said, "Well, I got even at last." "How?" queried the friend. "Well, that girl I just sold those shoes to is a telephone operator and I gave her the wrong number."

After listening to an impassioned speech by an advanced socialist, Casey said, "The truble iv it is thot sum paple whin they hum to this counthry are not satisfied wid the privilege iv doin' as they loike, boot they wants ither paple to do as they loike.

Little Bill had been helped to fish at dinner and his mother noticed that he was not eating it asked, "How come Bill you are not eating your fish. I thought you liked fish?" "Yes Mamma, I do like fish, but this one is full of splinters."

A Scotchman came upon an automobile overturned at a railway crossing. Beside it lay a man all smashed up. "Get a doctor," he moaned. "Did the train hit you?" asked the Scotchman. "Yes, yes; get a doctor." "Has the claim agent been here yet?" "No, no; please get a doctor." "Move over, you," said the Scotchman, "till I lie down beside you."

"A poor excuse is betther than sum," is the way Casey puts it.

"Yis, even a pickle has a swate disposition befoor sum wan sours ut," says Casey.

I noticed Casey with a string tied about his little finger, and asking the reason of it, was answered, "Oh, thot's jist to remoind me woife to axe me if Oi forgot somethin' she tould me to remmber."

What with the regular army and navy, the state militia and the naval reserve, and the Boy Scouts and independent companies in the military line, who in thunder will be the civilians if they all get to jining?

"Yis, sum wimin do be queer about chosin' their husbands," said Casey. "Now there is Mrs. O'Shaughnessey. Her furst mon were a foiremon, her second a baseball umpire, her third a manufacturer iv dynamite, and now her fifth do be an aviator whot runs wan iv thim stung ye, Oi'll give it a she must loike bein' a widdy."

Don't it make you mad to see ladies and other paid passengers standing in the cars while the comfortable seats are occupied by conductors and motormen, deadheading it back, also to see policemen and firemen working their complimentary rides while women and small children stand?

Two darkeys came up to the outskirts of a crowd where a politician was making a campaign speech. After listening to the speech for about ten minutes, one of them turned to his companion and asked, "Who is dat man, Sam?" "I don't know what his name is," said Sam, "but he certainly do recommen' hisself mos' highly."

It was over at the Englewood police court, and husband and wife were brought forth to explain their "bit iv a tiff" the night previous. The court opened by asking: "Is it true that you threw something at Mike that caused the swelling over his eye?" the squire inquired of a little woman. "Yis, sor, I did," said the woman, catching her breath, "but I niver mint to hurt him—an' well he knows it. We'd just come home from me cousin's weddin', an' I was feelin' kinder soft to Mike, an' I up an' axed him if he loved me as much as he did the day we was married, an—an', yer anner, he was so slow answerin' me that I up wid the mop and flung it at him! If we poor women don't have love our hearts jist breaks inside of us."

Chicago Woman's Ideal Club

This club, organized in the fall of 1922, has just closed its first year's activities. Formed for educational, civic betterment, philanthropic and social purposes, the club has already achieved much along these different lines. The meetings held the first and third Thursday of each month—October to April, inclusive—at the Blackstone hotel, have been most successful. Programs were given by leading musical artists, prominent speakers and educators. The club's philanthropy has been the contribution of $200 to the children's room at the Art Institute, and the adoption of a destitute, homeless old lady, to feed, clothe and house.

At the annual meeting, just passed, the club voted to undertake the raising of $2,000 for the benefit of the Chicago Industrial Home for Children, located at Woodstock, Ill. This home is forty years old. It was transferred from Chicago to Woodstock some twenty years ago because a lady interested in these orphan children bequeathed her estate to this worthy cause. The Home is nonsectarian and derives its support from interested groups of people and friends. A new wing to better segregate the boys and girls was built last fall and the Chicago Woman's Ideal club will raise the money to supply this wing with the necessary beds, bedding, etc.

The growth of the club's membership to nearly 250 is truly phenomenal and still greater achievements are looked forward to during the year 1923-1924 under the guidance of the newly elected officers, namely: President, Mrs. Frank M. Fulton; 1st vice-president, Mrs. F. R. Kraft; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. E. E. Macpherson; recording secretary, Mrs. G. F. Anderson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. B. Driver; treasurer, Mrs. J. F. Rochford; directors, Mrs. G. L. Beebe, Mrs. W. L. Gibbs, Mrs. J. H. Harris, Mrs. Oscar Hebel, Mrs. W. E. Hughes, Mrs. M. H. Ingalls, Mrs. C. H. Woodward, and Mrs. C. A. Young.

Englewood Commercial and Civic Association

At the noonday luncheon Wednesday President Berg presided. A series of bargain days was discussed generally and a committee was appointed of Berg, Mindes and Woolacott to devise ways and means to advance the idea. The matter of the wrecking of dilapidated shacks on 63rd st. was brought up and it was told that the old buildings may soon be torn down to make room for a $200,000 proposition to be erected on their site. The association was notified that their present hall will not be rented after November as the owners will need it for their own use after that date. The next meeting and luncheon will be held Wednesday, May 23rd.

Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teacher Assn.

The Lewis-Champlin Parent-teacher association will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, May 15th, at 8 o'clock. This occasion is Mothers' Night. A good program has been arranged. We hope to have every mother and father in the district at the meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mrs. Ellsworth Tent, D. of V.

On Friday evening, May 11th, at 8:30, Mrs. Ellsworth Tent No. 5, Daughters of Veterans, will give a card and bunco party in G. A. R. hall, 6236 Princeton ave. Mrs. Maude F. Sterling is chairman. The public is invited. A short business meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

Plain Talk to E. B. M. A. Members

After a nice luncheon and an unusually fine concert at the luncheon of the Englewood Business Men's association Thursday, President Clarence Rosen did some very plain talking. The small attendance was probably due to the fact that many of the delinquents knew what they had coming to them. The facts are that the membership of nearly 400 is boiled down to less than fifty at some important meetings, also that many are delinquent in their annual dues, and have not paid up for the first half of 1923, while the last half will soon be due. Also the sprinkling and street lighting funds are depleted because some of the members will not pay up. There are few if any who cannot pay the small amounts asked of them, but they postpone and beat off the collections in hope that they may avoid payments. No organization can exist with these methods, and it is up to the management to collect of everyone alike or turn off the lights and quit sprinkling in front of their premises. Mr. J. R. Russell, one of the old timers, Mr. Holtorff, Harry Englestein, L. C. Smith, V. Hartman, and Dan Wentworth all had something to say along these lines and the next few meetings will be lively and well attended.

Greater Englewood Y. M. C. A.

The project of erecting a real Y. M. C. A. in greater Englewood has not been allowed to drop, although for a time it has not been receiving the publicity it might have. Mr. Kenneth Beers, the representative, assures us that under the chairmanship of Mr. William Wanzer the "drive" is progressing and the first $100,000 toward the necessary $400,000 fund has been pledged, as also $25,000 on the second $100,000 which it is hoped to raise before June 30th. This has been placed in the efficient charge of Will Tegtmeier and he hopes to accomplish this with the assistance of central Englewood people. The amount thus far raised has come from the eastern and southern part of the district and it is up to the other localities to show their interest in the good work. It is in the central district that the building will doubtless be located, and local patriotism and pride should make the raising of the required amount an easy task.

Baptist Fountain Remounted

The substantial and handsome marble drinking fountain at the southeast corner of Stewart ave. and 63rd st., which was erected some years ago by the Young Men's Bible class of the Englewood Baptist church, has been renovated and refinished and opened for the season by the class. This centrally located fountain is a real benefit to Englewood on this popular corner and the Bible class deserves the thanks of the people for their thoughtfulness in erecting it and keeping it in good repair and usefulness. South Park Commissioner John Bain will address the class at its meeting Sunday.

SCOUTING

Boy Scout News

Ten Scouts of the Southwest district returned Tuesday morning from Camp Owassippe, the Chicago Scout camp at Whitehall, Mich. These Scouts, with about thirty-five others from the city, formed a pioneering squad or work party and were busily engaged in setting up the summer camp. They report a wonderful time, plenty of fun and plenty of work—building log cabins and swimming piers, repairing tents, cleaning up rubbish, and last, but not least, the planting of 10,000 young pine trees. They also started a camp garden, which should prove a real pleasure to the Scouts this summer.

The regular monthly meeting of the Southwest District Council was held on Thursday night, May 10th. Reports of the various committees were read and approved. Camp Kiwanis report showed that over 600 Scouts from the Southwest district have spent the week-ends at this wonderful camp since Jan. 1, 1923.

The finance committee report shows that $6,540 has been subscribed in this year's extension campaign. Although this is far short of the amount needed ($10,000), it is hoped that more funds will be received for the 1923 budget.

The advancement report shows a net gain of 250 Scouts since October, 1922, or a 13 per cent gain during the last six months. The total number of registered Scouts in the Southwest district is now 1,215.

Changes of Address

The following changes of address have been received at the Times office this week: Mrs. B. Grote, from 9827 Carpenter st. to Oak Forest, Ill.; Mrs. W. C. The Little Details Are Right
If you like your coat collar to hug the neck and the lapels to always stay nicely rolled, if you are particular as to the way your trousers hang, you're just the sort of man who will appreciate most of the new styles we have just received.
They are tailored of very fine, smooth-feeling worsteds, beautiful cassimeres and rich velours, with exacting care; they will always give good clothing service. We have unusually fine assortments at
